SUNDAY'S SCRIPTURES

On the Solemn Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, we will read Deuteronomy 8: 2 to 16; I Corinthians 10: 16 & 17; and John 6: 51 to 58. Next weekend, we return to the Sundays of "Ordinary Time" with semi-continuous readings. We will pick up with Jeremiah 20: 10 to 13; Romans 5: 12 to 15; and Matthew 10: 26 to 33.

PARISH CELEBRATION

This Sunday is Fathers' Day. Best wishes to all those celebrating! Each year, we offer the opportunity to have your father remembered at a novena of Masses beginning this weekend. The cards are free. Cards are still available this weekend. Return the outer envelope with the name or names you want to have remembered. The card and plain envelope are for presentation. No offering is required. Any donation you wish to give will be received most gratefully. We also give a small gift to all our fathers, fathers-to-be, grandfathers, and godfathers as a token of our appreciation. We pray for all parents. May the "Father of Light," from whom comes all parenthood in heaven and on earth, give our parents wisdom, courage, patience and joy.

AVE MARIA GUILD NEWS

Members of the Ave Maria Guild will be present at the 9 and 11 AM Masses this weekend. In place of their usual third Monday meeting, the members will gather for Mass at 5 PM on Tuesday, June 20, at which the new slate of officers will be welcomed into leadership. After Mass, as guests of the Knights of Col-umbus, members will meet for dinner in the Parish Hall.

cash, an order of nuns prayed to St. Rita of Cascia, patron of impossible causes, and then invested their order's saving in finding oil where experts said there was none to be found. It became, and remains, the most productive well in that area of Texas. Just as did those plucky sisters long ago, we have faith that your generosity will continue to flow into our "Restricted Use Fuel Fund."

COLLECTION REPORT: JUNE 10 & 11

MASS	ATTENDANCE	COLLECTION
5 PM	85	$ 1,439.00
9 AM	152	$ 1,459.00
11 AM	143	$ 961.00
Totals	380	$ 3,859.00

It's been a while since we came this close to average attendance of 395 for a Sunday in mid-June. Of course, in three of the last six years -- last year, 2014 and 2012 -- we had over 410 worshipers. Our Offertory Collection tied with last year for second place out of six years. Our collections since early May have picked up noticeably. Thanks to your generosity we are climbing out of the red with more than baby steps. Last weekend saw the hottest, most humid mid-June weather since 2012.

EXPENDITURES THROUGH JUNE 11

Water bills (supplementary)	$ 271.60
Telephone (monthly)	$ 269.82
Answering service	$ 116.98
Total	$ 658.40

Before setting off the fireworks, keep in mind there are just under $ 6,100 in unpaid bills lurking in the "In box." Our Fathers' Day Offertory collection will allow us to pay about half of that amount.

UNSETTLED DATES

We are still searching for satisfactory dates to honor this year's high school graduates. A parish with seven school districts and two Catholic schools has seniors with proms, trips and graduations all over the calendar. Even though there are only three couples to honor for Gold and Silver anniversaries, we are still trying to find the best date and time for Mass. What is clear at this writing is that the dates will be in July.

"150 CLUB" NEWS

The "150 Club" winner for Sunday, June 11 was Sr. Marylin Grosselfinger, IHM # 187. This weekend's winner will receive $ 100 in honor of Fathers' Day. For information, please call Kate: 888-2652.

"OIL SHOOK UP"

Sometimes, we need to be "shaken" out of our everyday routine. Recently, this writer watched a movie called "The Rookie." It starts out with the history of an oil well, the Santa Rita # 1. Strapped for
