NO FIRST COMMUNIONS THIS SEASON

After consultation and much deliberation, and with mixed feelings, we've made a pastoral decision to postpone the reception of the Sacrament of Penance for the first time and receiving First Holy Communion. The children, of course, are innocent in God's eyes and totally worthy of the gift of their Eucharistic Lord. But, over the years, it's become obvious that many seven year olds are still struggling with routine, ritual and the retention of instructions. It is felt that an extra year of socialization and development of learning skills will make the reception of the sacraments go more smoothly for them and give them greater spiritual satisfaction. This year's group was only three children -- a good number for trying something new. We'll see.

Attendance this past weekend was 60 worshipers below the average of the last five years and the lowest ever for mid-April. Saturday was typical of the weather hereabouts on the weekend of April straddling the teens; Sunday was more wintry. The Offertory was exactly $ 200 above average and second highest in six years for a mid-April weekend. We are grateful to our parishioners for their steady support of our parish.
